Some comments from the participants

Martin captivated the audience with his dynamic speech and his honest and refreshing point of view on the topic of wealth structuring and preservation.

Conference Director, Buenos Aires

Martin Litwak combines great technical knowledge with clear didactics, as well as a gift for connecting with people. This was one of the best programs I have attended recently.

Diploma student at Universidad del CEMA

His quality as a teacher meant that none of the classes given by other teachers could compete with him in terms of interest, pragmatism, and exposure.
